

Our School Ethos

St. Kevin's National School encourages and guides each and every child in developing fully their own gifts while caring for one another in the way Jesus taught us. As a school community it values the contribution of all its members, respects their uniqueness and responds to their individual needs in a caring and supportive way. It sees itself as an extension of the family. As a parish school it encourages pupils to participate in parish activities appropriate for their age.